SAID BLOOD WAS THAT OF CHICKENS

But Woman Who Lived With Accused Declared No Chickens

of Letitia Glover was resumed this afteroon. Several witnesses were examined to show further evidence of motive on the part of Jamle Ramsey for commit-ting such a crime, if she really did. Wrs. Farnsworth testified that she had heard Jamie Ramsey make threats against Le-she wouldn't mind killing her any more than she would a snake.

The incident of the day was the exhibition of a blood-stained skirt that Officer Riley had found at the Ramsey home. Jamle Ramsey, when confronted with this skirt, explained the blood by saying it was done while she was killing chickens on Friday before the Glover murder. A Mrs. Beech, who makes her home with Jamle Ramsey, and who did not know what Jamle Ramsey had told about the blood, stated on the stand that no chickens had been killed and served at the Ramsey home since she went there a month ago.

The inquest was adjourned until Thursday.
